

Relative achievement improvements made by Michael Method students

(Statistics from the 20th course: January 2002 - June 2002)

The program involves studies in some 70 different fields of knowledge. Students take 12 tests at the beginning and again at the end of the program. Given below are the achievement improvement results based on a comparison of the grade scores for nine of these tests.

